

MICHIGAN LOWER COURT DECISIONS - CIRCUIT COURT DECISIONS

People v. Hicks, Case No. 2010-232705-FH, March 15, 2011 (Oakland County):

Issue: Whether the defendant demonstrated a legitimate need for medical marihuana use.

Holding: The court found that the defendant failed to demonstrate that a full assessment of his medical history and current condition were conducted or that he had a bona fide relationship with the doctor. Also, the court found that the defendant was not diagnosed with a serious or debilitating condition and defendant failed to prove that the amount of marihuana that he possessed was legitimate.
